Hospitality and Tourism Management, BS

Hospitality and Tourism Management majors learn a broad range of professional skills, including communication, critical thinking, and a variety of business concepts—and at York College, they’re able to practice those skills beyond the classroom. Hands-on projects with real companies and organizations provide résumé-building experience long before graduation day. Internships offer opportunities to network and explore the many different specialties within the hospitality industry. And through it all, students have the support of expert faculty and a close-knit community of peers.

Sport Management, BS

A career in sport management requires a love of athletics – and at York College, students and faculty in our Sport Management major are passionate about their work. Job growth in sport management is on the rise, and YCP’s hands-on program will prepare you to excel in this expanding field. Our bachelor’s degree in Sport Management introduces you to the industry from all angles, and then gives you space to choose the areas of concentration for your future career. From day one, you’ll explore the business of sport, along with event management, operations, marketing, ethics, and much more.

Therapeutic Recreation and Wellness, BS

The Therapeutic Recreation and Wellness degree program at York College offers a starting point for numerous career paths that allow you to work with individuals of all ages and abilities. Using evidence-based practices, students graduate ready to support wellbeing throughout their communities.

The Therapeutic Recreation concentration prepares students to serve a wide variety of treatment needs with knowledge and skills that support age-related conditions, behavioral and mental health, substance addiction recovery, physical rehabilitation, chronic illness, developmental or intellectual disabilities, community inclusion, and adapted sports and recreation.
